

Janine Guillot*Special Advisor to the Chair of the International Sustainability Standards Board (ISSB)

Janine Guillot is Special Advisor to the Chair of the International Sustainability Standards Board (ISSB), where she provides strategic counsel to the ISSB Chair and IFRS Foundation Trustees, focused on the establishment of the ISSB and the consolidation of the Value Reporting Foundation into the IFRS Foundation.

Prior, Janine was Chief Executive Officer of the Value Reporting Foundation (formerly the SASB Foundation) and led the establishment and widespread acceptance of SASB Standards as the leading industry-specific sustainability disclosure standards for the global capital markets. She led the merger of SASB and the International Integrated Reporting Council (IIRC) into the VRF, and the merger of the VRF into the IFRS Foundation. These mergers were major steps in simplifying the global sustainability disclosure landscape. She is a leader in the global effort to establish and build support for the ISSB.

Janine has a distinguished career in financial services. Prior to joining SASB, she served as Chief Operating Investment Officer for the California Public Employees' Retirement System (CalPERS), where her responsibilities included oversight of CalPERS ESG integration and corporate governance programs. Prior to CalPERS, Janine held senior leadership positions at Barclays Global Investors (BGI) and Bank of America, including serving as Chief Operating Officer of BGI's European and Global Fixed Income businesses.

A graduate of Southern Methodist University (SMU), Janine began her career as a technical accountant and auditor with Ernst & Young. In recognition for her leadership at the intersection of sustainability, accounting and finance, Janine was selected as a 2020 and 2021 NACD Directorship 100 Honoree and named to the 2020 Business Insider's 100 People Transforming Business list.
